An Employee who is transferred, for whatever reason, from an excluded or exempt position to a position covered by the terms of this Agreement and who had previously occupied a position covered by the terms of this Agreement, shall have his/her previous service time in the included position re-established without loss and applied to his/her seniority for application to the provisions contained in this Agreement.

Section 2 - Probationary Employees

A new Employee, employed under Civil Service regulations, regardless of ILEA certification, shall be on probation and have no seniority rights or recourse to the grievance procedure for a period of twelve (12) months from the date he/she commences work in a full-time position; and if retained, seniority shall be calculated from the first date of hire or rehire.

Employees employed under Civil Service shall also be subject to the provisions of Chapter 341A.

Employees not employed under Civil Service regulations shall have a contractual probationary period of six (6) months and have no seniority rights or recourse to the grievance procedure for that period.

Temporary transfers shall be at the discretion of the Employer, and shall be defined as a period of up to thirty (30) workdays. Such written notification must state the specific position(s) for which they desire to be considered.

Except in cases of emergency, notice of layoff will be given at least two (2) weeks in advance of the layoff, or two (2) weeks pay in lieu thereof. If a layoff is deemed necessary by the Employer, it will be administered according to an Employee's seniority within the job classification affected. ARTICLE X
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 1 - Definition

A grievance is defined as an Employee's claim against the Employer, arising out of an alleged violation in the application of specific provisions of this Agreement.

Section 2 - Grievance Procedure

1. Immediate Supervisor

An Employee, with or without the Union Steward, shall discuss an alleged grievance orally, with his/her immediate supervisor, as designated by the department head within five (5) workdays following its occurrence, or within five (5) workdays from the date that the Employee first became aware of the cause of the alleged grievance or should have become aware of it with the exercise of reasonable diligence, in an effort to resolve the problem in an informal manner. But, in no case may such an alleged grievance be filed thirty (30) days after its actual occurrence. The immediate supervisor shall respond to the grievance within five (5) workdays.

2. Division Chief or Designee

If the answer is not satisfactory, the matter shall be presented in writing, stating specific provisions of the Agreement allegedly violated, by the Union Steward or Business Agent, to the Division Chief or designee within five (5) workdays after the response. The Division Chief or designee shall respond to the Union Steward or Business Agent in writing, within five (5) workdays.

3. Sheriff or Designee and Board of Supervisors or Designee

If the grievance still remains unadjusted, it shall be presented by the Chief Steward and/or Business Agent, to the designee of the Board of Supervisors, in writing, stating specific provisions of the Agreement allegedly violated within five (5) workdays after the response of the Division Chief or Designee. The designee of the Board of Supervisors shall respond in writing, to the Chief Steward and/or Business Agent, within ten (10) workdays after the meeting with the Chief Steward and/or Business Agent and the Sheriff or designee, but in no case shall the Employer's response be in excess of fifteen (15) workdays from receipt of the Third Step grievance. Grievances occurring from a transfer/promotion shall be filed at Third Step.

4. Arbitration

Any grievance not settled to the satisfaction of the Employee in Step Three of the grievance procedure may be appealed to arbitration, provided that notice is given in writing to the other party, and is with approval of the employee organization and the Employee. This appeal must be made thirty (30) workdays after the date the designee of the Board of Supervisors answers in the Third Step grievance procedure.

The issue as stated in the Third Step grievance shall constitute the sole and entire subject matter to be heard by the arbitrator, unless the parties mutually agree to modify the scope of the hearing.

Section 3 - Selection of An Arbitrator

After either party has so notified the other of its referral of a grievance to arbitration, the parties will attempt to meet within ten (10) workdays to select an arbitrator, or to request the Iowa Public Employment Relations Board or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to furnish a list of arbitrators from which the parties will select one (1) arbitrator. Such selection shall be by agreement within five (5) workdays, if possible. Otherwise, the party making the referral shall, within one (1) workday from receipt of such list, strike one (1) name from the list. Within two (2) workdays from the first striking, the other party shall strike one (1) name. If necessary, this process shall be repeated until only (1) name remains. The remaining name will be the arbitrator. Either party, upon receipt of the arbitration list, may reject the list in total, and request another list.

Selection 4 - Arbitration Expenses

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator will be shared equally by the parties. Each party shall pay its own cost of preparation and presentation for arbitration. No stenographic transcript of the arbitration hearing shall be made unless requested by a party. The cost of the stenographic reporting of the hearing shall be borne by the party requesting same, except that the other party may request a copy of such transcript, in which case the parties shall equally divide the cost of stenographic reporting and transcripts. The arbitrator shall have no power to change, alter, detract from, or add to the provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding on the parties.

An arbitrator selected pursuant to the provisions of Section 3 shall have no authority or power to amend, modify, or nullify provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator may not hear more than one grievance, unless the presentation of more than one grievance, involving similar facts, issues and contract provisions is mutually agreed to. No monetary liability shall accrue against the Employer prior to the date upon which the grievance was first timely presented to the Employer in written form. Consistent with these provisions, a decision of the arbitrator shall, if within the scope of the arbitrator's authority and supported by a preponderance of the competent evidence, be final and binding on all parties, unless reversed by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 5 - Grievance Record

All Second and Third Step grievances shall be reported to the Labor Relations Manager, and each Third Step grievance shall receive a serial number.
